Notice to debtor(s) in re: credit reporting

In reply to your letter, the Bankruptcy Court does not report information to any of the credit reporting agencies. The credit reporting agencies, however, collect information regarding bankruptcy cases directly from the court's public records. Bankruptcy petitions, schedules, and other documents are public records. Regardless of the disposition of your case (i.e., open, closed, discharged, dismissed, etc.) the credit reporting agencies can report your case on your credit report for up to ten years.

The Bankruptcy Court is unable to assist you with removing or correcting information listed on your credit report.
